

~About Us~

Rick Fleming

Rick has been involved in hockey for over 30 years. Rick is a Madison Native and played high school hockey for Madison West where they won the State Title in 1983. Rick went on to play in the USHL for the Madison Capitols and continued his career at UW- Stevens Point where they won the NCAA Championship in 1989. He served as the UW Stevens Point Assistant Coach where he coached them to their second straight NCAA Championship. Rick moved to the Junior A's league, coaching the Indianapolis Jr. Ice and the Omaha Lancers. Rick now is head coach for the Stoughton Vikings.

Kurt Semandel

Kurt has been involved with hockey over 30 years. Kurt grew up in Milwaukee and played with the Shaw hockey organization. He attended St. Mary's Fond du Lac. Kurt continued his career at UW-Madison and played for the Badgers from 1985-1989. He played eight years of professional hockey under contract with the San Jose Sharks for two years and in the minors with Kansas City Blades, Milwaukee Admirals and the Madison Monsters. Kurt resides in Waunakee with his wife, three sons and is presently coaching for the Madison Capitols and the Waunakee Youth Organization.
